Sales and Use Tax in Connecticut
July 29, 2008
Bridgeport Holiday Inn & Conference Center
1070 Main Street ~ Bridgeport, CT

We are pleased to announce the following important educational opportunity:

On July 29, 2008, Dean M. Hottle II, CPA, M.S.T., a tax partner with O'Connor Davies Munns & Dobbins, LLP ("ODMD") and Edward E. Granelli, CPA, a senior tax manager with ODMD, will present, "Sales and Use Tax in Connecticut." The seminar, which is sponsored by Lorman Education Services, will be held at the Bridgeport Holiday Inn & Conference Center at 1070 Main Street in Bridgeport, CT.

This seminar provides the perfect opportunity to obtain the most current information on all aspects of complicated sales and use tax. Our leading tax experts will assist you in determining what transactions are taxable and how to find exemptions with ease. Attendees will walk away with a real-world "road map" to meet all their obligations and they will learn how to keep their companies in safe "harbors".

The benefits of attending this seminar include:

- Determining what is taxable and what is exempt - the easy way
- Tackling multistate transactions, including nexus
- Obtaining tips on complying with reporting requirements
- Learning how to avoid sales tax liability for an out-of-state contractor or sub-contractor
- Discovering ways to avoid the most common reporting mistakes

For more information and registration requirements, please contact Sandy Carroll at ODMD, 914-381-8900 or scarroll@odmd.com.
